

Sliding into Summer

How to Keep Kids on Top of Their Reading Game

April 24, 2018
7 - 8 p.m.

Have you wondered how to support your child's reading development once school lets out for the summer? Join us for an evening of learning! Heartland AEA professionals will share ideas for families to use at home and in the community during summer break.

Who

Parents of K-3rd grade students

What

Parent learning session

Where

Connect from the comfort of your home, public library or coffee shop — where ever works best for you as the session will be held via Zoom Video Conferencing.

Note: You will need Internet access on your computer, tablet or smartphone.

Facilitators

- Kate Boonstra, Family & Educator Coordinator
- Janelle Thompson, Literacy Consultant
- Mia Vannoy, Speech-Language Pathologist

For more information or to request access to the video conference, contact:

Kate Boonstra

Family & Educator Coordinator
(800) 255-0405 ext. 14625
kboonstra@heartlandaea.org