The Salvation Army Day Camp will provide your child with a safe, nurturing environment in which he/she can explore and expand their abilities. We have a reading program to help children to develop and maintain good reading skills. Activities provided include crafts, library visits, field trips, gym games, and drama. Field trips may include Blank Park Zoo, The Science Center of Iowa, State Historical Building, Iowa Cubs Baseball Game, Pump it Up, bowling, swimming, fishing, and more.

Please Note: You will be expected to pay for the days and weeks that you register for, unless you notify us in writing with two weeks’ notice. All fees are due in advance. The first week’s fees are due on the sign-up day and fees during the summer are due by Friday for the following week. Payments and fees are non-refundable. We accept cash, credit, or debit. NO CHECKS.
